FOREWORD

"But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you have learned it . . ."

II Timothy 3:14

Education is a life-long process. Learning does not stop when a student completes a school year or receives a diploma. A man continues to learn throughout his entire life. At Saint Croix a Christian-oriented education is offered to each student. As each of us continues to grow, let us not forget our teachers and the message of faith which they have taught us.

Through the pages of this yearbook, the Shield staff hopes to show you the cooperation, teamwork, and Christian fellowship that we experience here at Saint Croix Lutheran High School.

"Precision ballet, Saint Croix style"

"One more play like that and..."

Saint Croix completed its first full season of conference competition in football in 1968. Despite the fact that no victories were achieved, the season can be considered successful. A good crowd turned out to see the Crusaders tie Somerset in Saint Croix's first homecoming game, and all-around enthusiasm for the event was high. The team has adopted a "wait 'til next year" attitude as most of its members will be returning next season, presumably more experienced and ready to win.

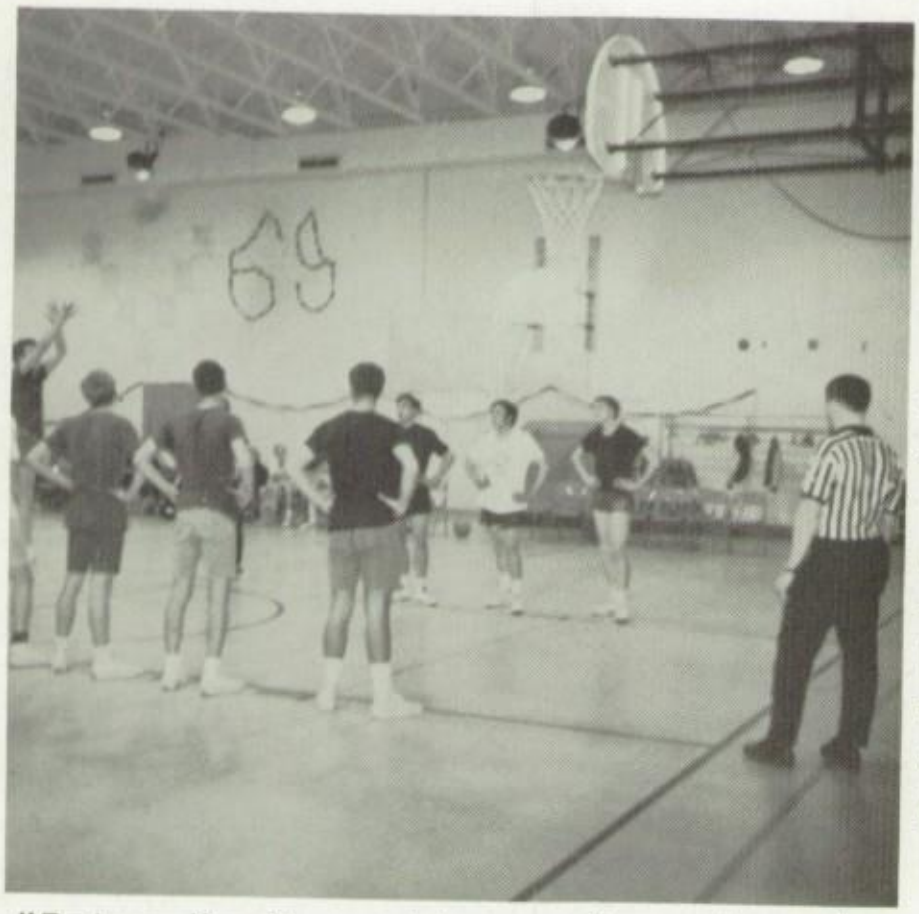
INTRAMURALS



"Peter Meelberg throws free throw"

Vicious class rivalry finds an outlet in boys' and girls' intramurals. This year all of the games in basketball intramurals were held on one weekend instead of spreading them out over the usual two weekends. The senior boys captured the championship title by beating the juniors 53-43.

Alan Meier won the school championship in the table tennis competition, and Charles Faught won the chess title. Both boys represented Saint Croix in the TVAC championship tournament, held at Saint Croix this year.

The senior girls set a new record by taking the championship title in the basketball intramurals for four years in a row. The sophomore girls took second place when they lost to the senior girls 28-14.

Gail Eckelberg and Carol Bauer took school title for chess and table tennis respectively. They also represented Saint Croix in the TVAC tournaments.

HOMECOMING

Saint Croix had a big first in its 68-69 school year--homecoming. The Friday night before the game alumni and present students met at school for an evening of fun outdoors. The festivities included introducing the team, skits, and a bonfire. The band also moved outdoors to add to the spirit. The Saturday afternoon game against Somerset ended in a 7-7 tie. Saint Croix's touchdown was scored by Carl Vrieze. The game was followed by a reception with light refreshments at the school.

Participation in the Pep Club means supporting our teams, whether they are winning or losing, and prompting school spirit in general. During the year members sold Pep Club buttons, chartered buses to away games, and helped decorate the gym for home basketball games. Through their energy and spirit they also helped to make the first home-coming a success.

COURIER

Many busy hours of hard work take place before the Courier is placed in the hands of the students. The Courier is Saint Croix's school newspaper which is published on a monthly basis. It keeps the students informed and entertained. Those students who are the Courier staff take positions as editor, assistant editor, feature, sport, and humor writers, and typists.

SHIELD

"Editor and adviser"

Through the efforts of the students and donations of the patrons, Saint Croix manages to produce a yearbook each year--the Shield. To accomplish this the staff puts in many hours of hard work. This year the Shield had a new adviser, Miss Arndt. There are fifteen student members on the staff who are assigned to nine different types of work. These are editor, assistant editor, typist, lay-out committee, copy committee, sales and promotion, treasurer, art, and photography. The staff often has fun reminiscing events while choosing pictures to be used.

"Croixaliers performing at Easter"

The 1968-69 Croixaliers had a busy, gay year. They were sent to represent the school at the Choral Festival held in Lake Mills, Wisconsin. They also sang at many churches in such places as Clear Lake, Almena, Cannon Falls, Prescott, St. Paul (Emanuel and Trinity). The Croixaliers were also called upon to sing at two funerals. As in other years they sang at Christmas, Easter, and on June Night.

"Crusader band performs at the basketball bounce-off"

The growing Crusader Band was very active this year. It played for special events such as the homecoming pep-fest and game and the Christmas concert besides some of the home basketball games. The band played in the grade-school band concert. Instead of crowding it into the June Night program, the band was given its own concert near the end of May.

ACTIVITIES

FRESHMAN FROLIC

It was September and once again time for the freshmen to board the bus to Taylor's Falls. The first stop was Stillwater where one hundred sixty steps were climbed to see the beautiful St. Croix River. A brief stop was made at O'Brien State Park before Taylor's Falls was finally reached. Ant lions, a small dam, a fish hatchery, potholes, small caves, a few wet feet, and a dead deer were the sights seen by the freshman frolickers. All in all, it was an exhausting but enjoyable day for them.

Much of the recreation at Saint Croix revolves around Student Council activities. Usually planned on a monthly basis, these activities vary greatly. Perhaps the most popular and widely attended activity is the roller-skating parties. This year the Student Council also sponsored an "October Happening," an ice skating and gym party, a bowling and billiards party, and Patriotic Day.

"Will you be my brisket of lean beef?"

Under the direction of Miss Arndt the junior class presented the three-act play, "Huckleberry Finn", on March 6th and 7th. The plot moves quickly as Huck finds his "drowned" father alive and demanding Huck's money. Huck runs away but returns after his father has reformed. The ending, however, is thoroughly happy. Despite a shortage of boys for male parts the play turned out to be a success, attracting the largest Friday night crowd ever.

Under the direction of Miss Rhoda Arndt, the senior class presented "Who Killed Aunt Caroline?" on October 24 and 25. This mystery story kept the audience in suspense for three acts, in which all members of the Endicott family admit to murdering the aunt. The unsuspected murderer is finally apprehended by the clever Clayton, and the baffled characters breathe a sigh of relief as the mysterious plot has reached its finale.

LYCEUMS

Two years ago, Saint Croix started an educational program for the students -- the lyceum program. These lyceums take place during the eighth hour of a school day when all the students come down to the gym to see and hear a guest speaker or an entertainer. This year Professor Scharf showed us a number of slides of his work in Vietnam, a film on the Biafran situation was given by the Red Cross, a demonstration was given on the trampoline, Mrs. Susan Clausen talked and showed a film about Red Cross volunteer work, and Mr. John Van Allen gave us a patriotic talk on Patriotic Day at Saint Croix.

"Mrs. Clausen admires the Red Cross display"

ANNIVERSARY DRESS-UP DAY

"That's a no-no!"

"Jerry Collyard gargles punch"

This year was the ninth anniversary of moving into the classroom building. The students celebrated this day by wearing their Sunday best to school. In the afternoon a reception took place at which the Croixaliers sang, a past graduate, Karl Thees, spoke, and the Student Council served refreshments.

CHRISTMAS

"Sing We Now of Christmas" was the main theme for this year's Christmas at Saint Croix. The Cadet Choir sang excerpts from "Love Transcending" by Peterson, followed by the Crusader Choir singing "Sing We Now of Christmas" by Simeone. The music varied from a Puerto Rican carol to familiar songs such as "Silent Night." The Croixaliers also sang several numbers, and during certain parts of the program the band played selections from "Christmas Suite" by Walters and "Carol of the Drums" by Davis.

EASTER

After many hours of practices and special rehearsals, the Crusaders presented the Easter cantata on March 28. The Cadet Choir sang "Alleluia! Christ is Risen." "The Atonement" by Sydney H. C. Peters and "The Wall of Heaven, O Savior, Rend!," a motet by Brahms, were sung by Choir I. Both choirs and the Croixaliers also united to sing "Hosanna!," "Since Thou Art Risen," and other various selections.

"Steve Meier rakes out 'river'"

ARBOR DAY

This year's Arbor Day was very productive. Despite weather predictions of much rain and cool temperatures, the day was sunny and warm. Besides the usual weeding, raking, grass-cutting, and tree-planting, the temporary building was painted, the parking lot was striped, and the road was picked clean of beer cans. There was a pop break at 11:00 and the A-squad cheerleading tryouts were held after lunch. At the end of a beautiful day the closing devotion was held by the rock.

"Sue and Becky shape up the baseball field"

SCHOOL PICNIC

"Seniors play 'Balloon Stomp'"

In spite of unseasonably cold weather and threats of rain, Saint Croix's school picnic was held on Monday, June 2, at Nerstrand Woods. Planned by the junior class, the picnic featured such games as softball (batting with the opposite hand), a spelling game, and a pop-a-balloon-on-your-foot stomp. Crusaders were served hoagies and soft drinks for lunch. Hiking or ball-playing made the afternoon pass quickly. Intermissions were spent at one of the three fires where the students thawed out briefly.

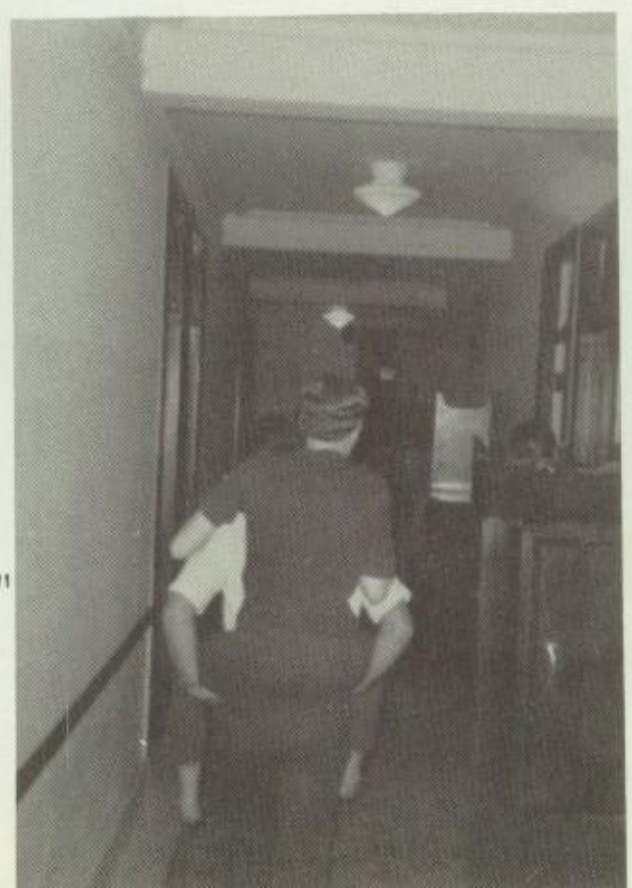
SENIOR CLASS TRIP

"Visiting the Shedd Aquarium"

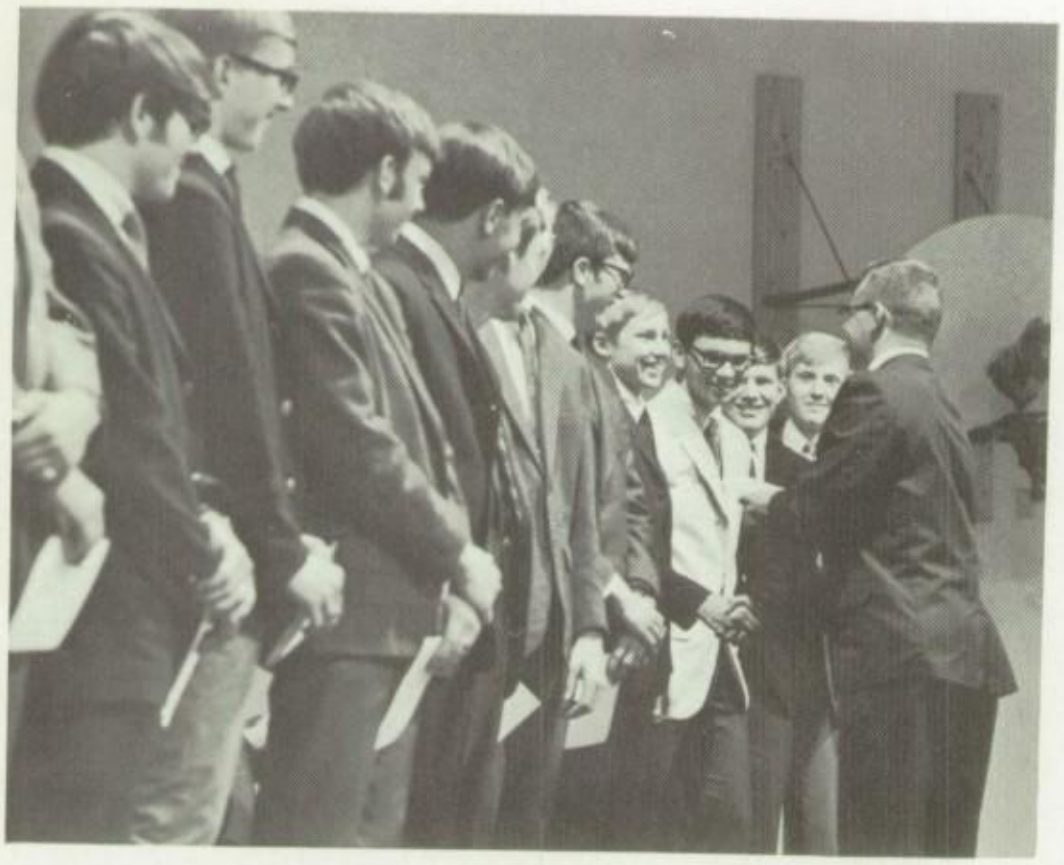
"Attractions at the Elks' Memorial"

The senior class visited Chicago on the weekend of May 15th to the 18th. After a hairy all night train trip with frivolous undertones, they arrived in Chicago Friday morning. The weekend was spent in touring the beautiful city of Chicago guided by the world's humblest bus driver. Free time was used for shopping and G.M.A. (general milling around). The group returned home on the Sunday afternoon Hiawatha thoroughly exhausted but much more enlightened concerning Mayor Daley's wonderful town of Chicago, Chicago. . .

"Exercises and activities: Pyramid and running Bauer-back down the hall"



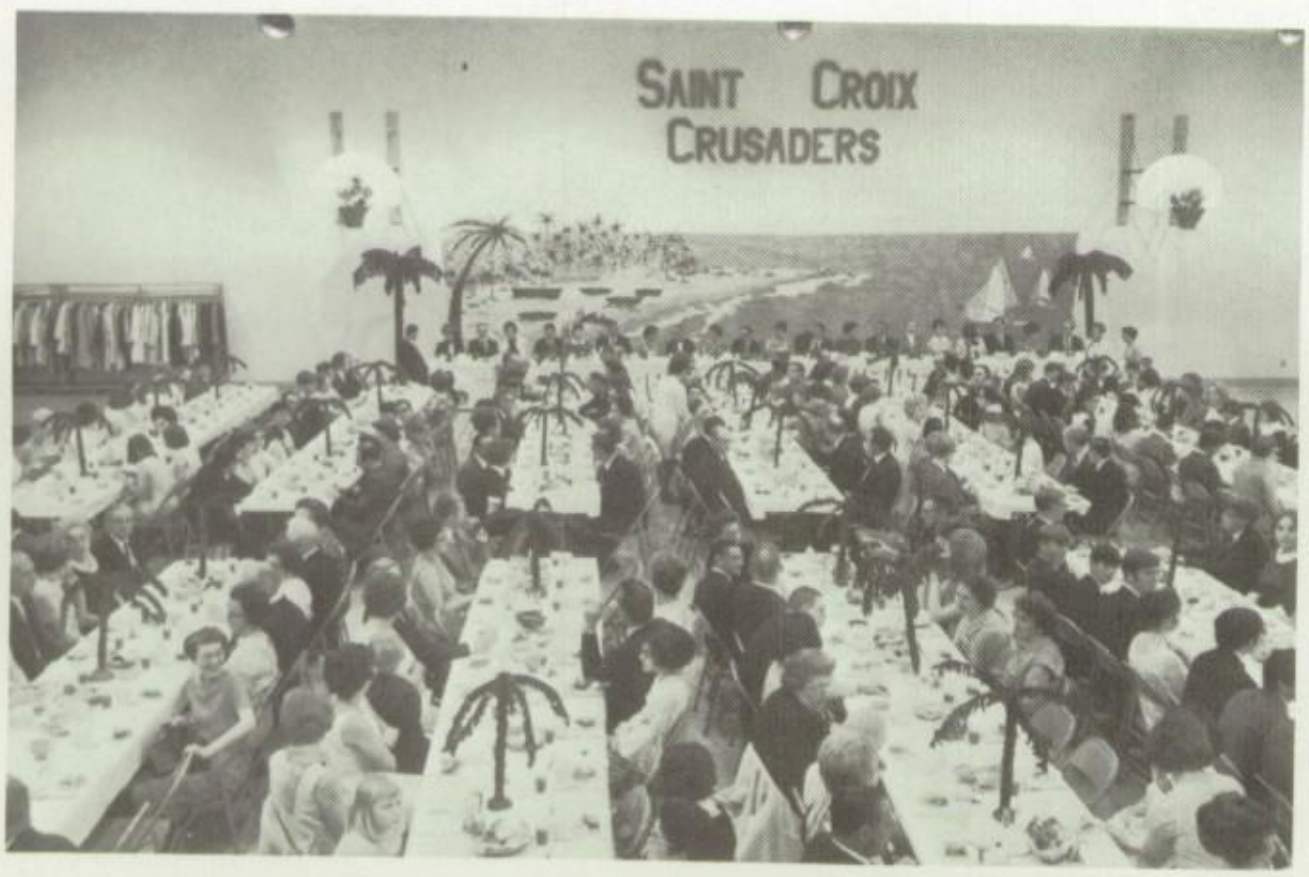
RECOGNITION BANQUET



"Football team receives awards"

South Sea island adventure was the theme of this year's Recognition Banquet. The main speaker, Vicar G. Kirschke of Emanuel. spoke of life as a South Sea adventure where we are traveling from island to island or goal to goal. Mr. Trost gave the parent response, and Craig Fechner gave student response. Mr. Dennis Needham gave life to the night as toastmaster, and the Croixaliers gave a preview of the songs to be sung on June Night. The P.T.A. decorated the gym with palm trees and a large painting of a tropical island.

"Vicar Kirschke sacks out"



"Eating in a South Pacific atmosphere"

JUNE NIGHT

"If only I were a rich man"

"The folk dancers add to the choir's presentation"

Hours of laborious practice culminated in a delightful evening of light-hearted music which thrilled the audience on June Night. This year the Crusader Choir sang selections from "Fiddler on the Roof" and "A Tribute to Romberg." During the singing of the former a group of girls folk-danced, and members of the freshman and sophomore classes acted out parts of the play.
The Cadet Choir sang various songs ranging from folk to pop. Also the Croixaliers showed their talent in the numbers which they sang.

GRADUATION

At eight o'clock on Sunday, June 8, thirty-three seniors marched into the gym to start Saint Croix's eighth graduation ceremony. Pastor D. Westendorf of Pilgrim addressed his graduation message mainly to those seniors entering college. He told the Class of '69 to be on guard and always turn to the Lord for guidance as they enter an unsympathetic world. Salutatorian Carol Bauer encouraged the Christian teenager to value sacred music. Valedictorian Steven Meier talked of the Christian's duty toward his government. With this ceremony Principal Morton A. Schroeder handed out the diplomas and dismissed the Class of '69 with God's blessing.

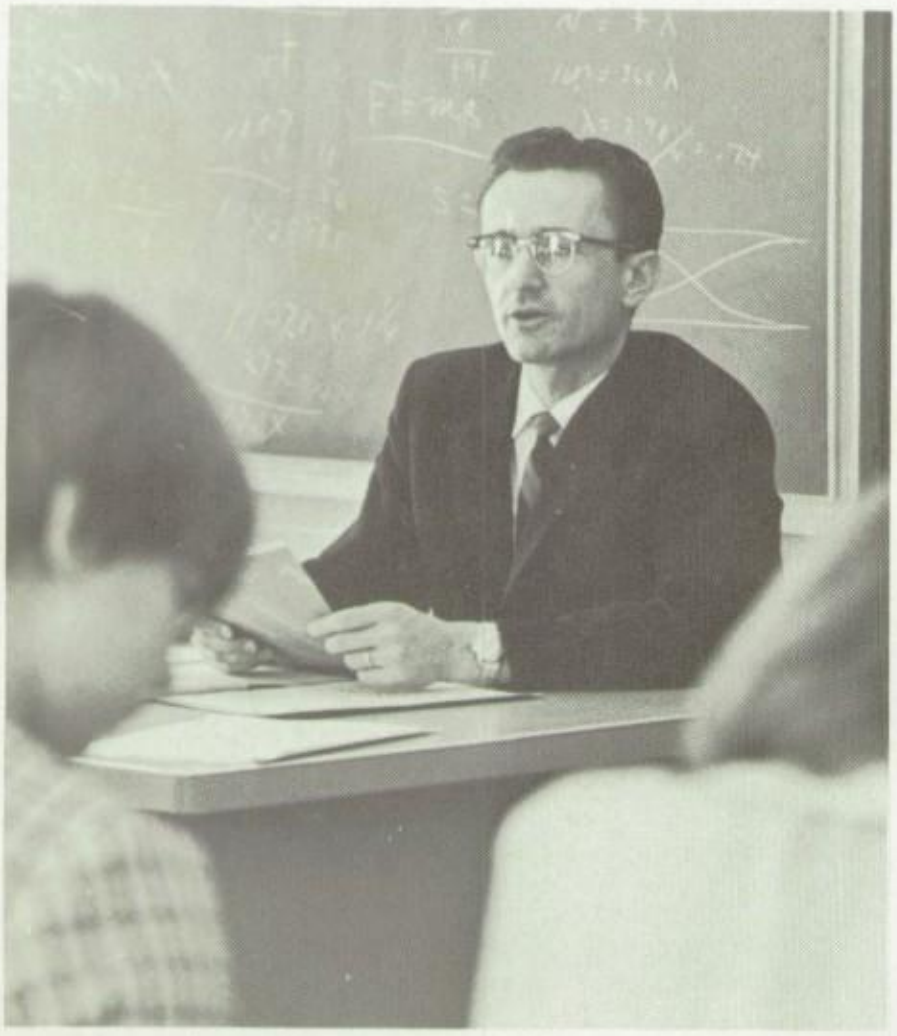
PEOPLE

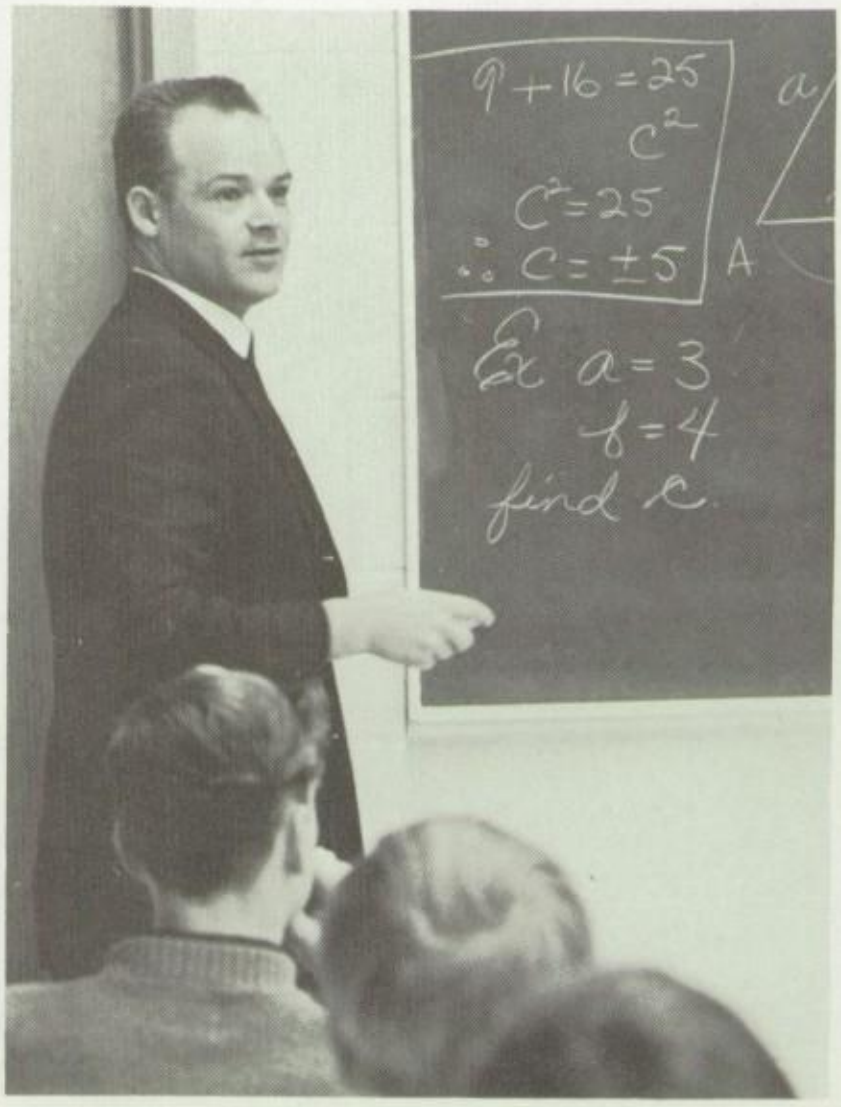
Board of Regents

Seated: Left to right: Mr. Schroeder, Mr. Bertozzi, Mr. Faught, Pastor Knief, Pastor Zenker, Mr. Bauer.
Standing: Pastor Fallen, Mr. Van Houten, Mr. Mahnke, Mr. Swanson, Mr. Ubel, Mr. Horning, Mr. Greer



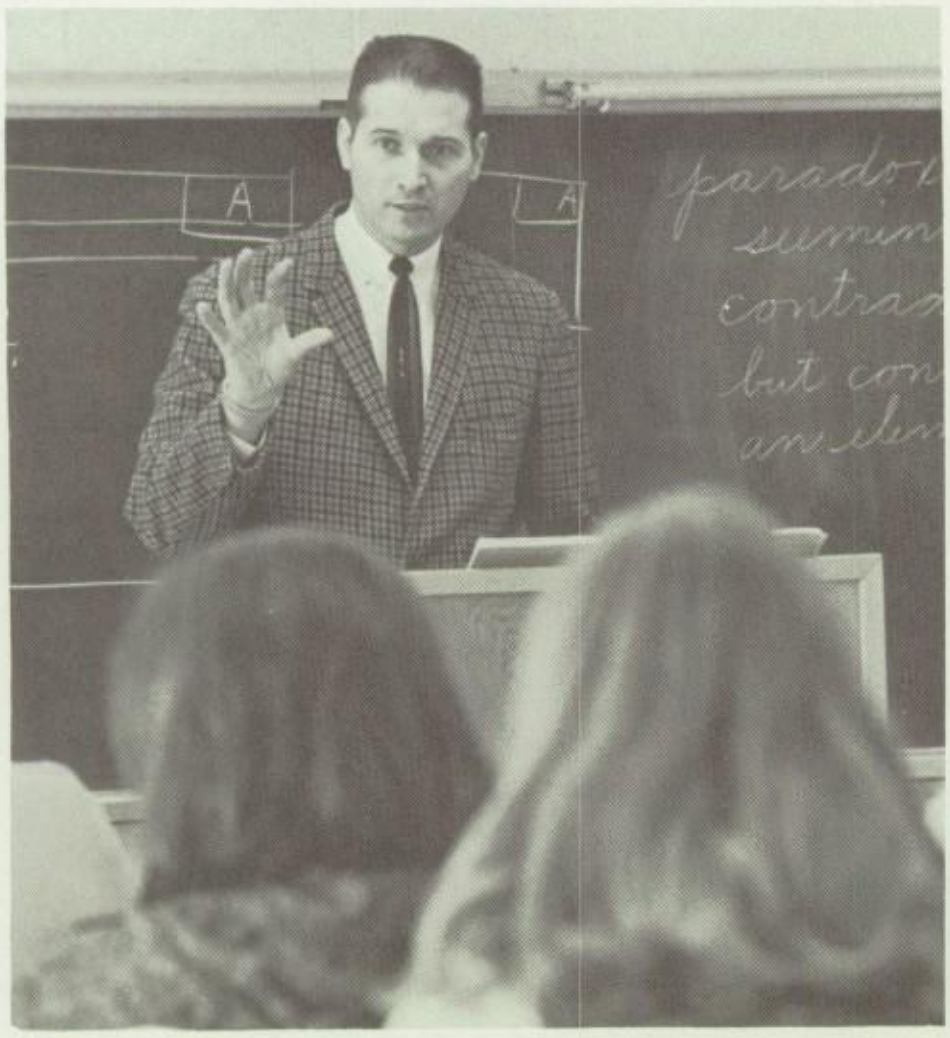
Mr. Ronald Pape is busy at Saint Croix with science and music. He teaches physics, chemistry, and biology. He directs the Crusader and Cadet Choirs, the band, and Croix-aliers. He works with grade-school band students. Mr. Pape serves the seniors as their class adviser. This marks his tenth year of teaching at Saint Croix.

With his extensive background and knowledge in the mathematics field, Mr. Philip Storby has been a capable instructor in Algebra I and II, geometry, and advanced math. He is also in charge of our testing program and directs Band II, drivers' training, and is acting junior class adviser.



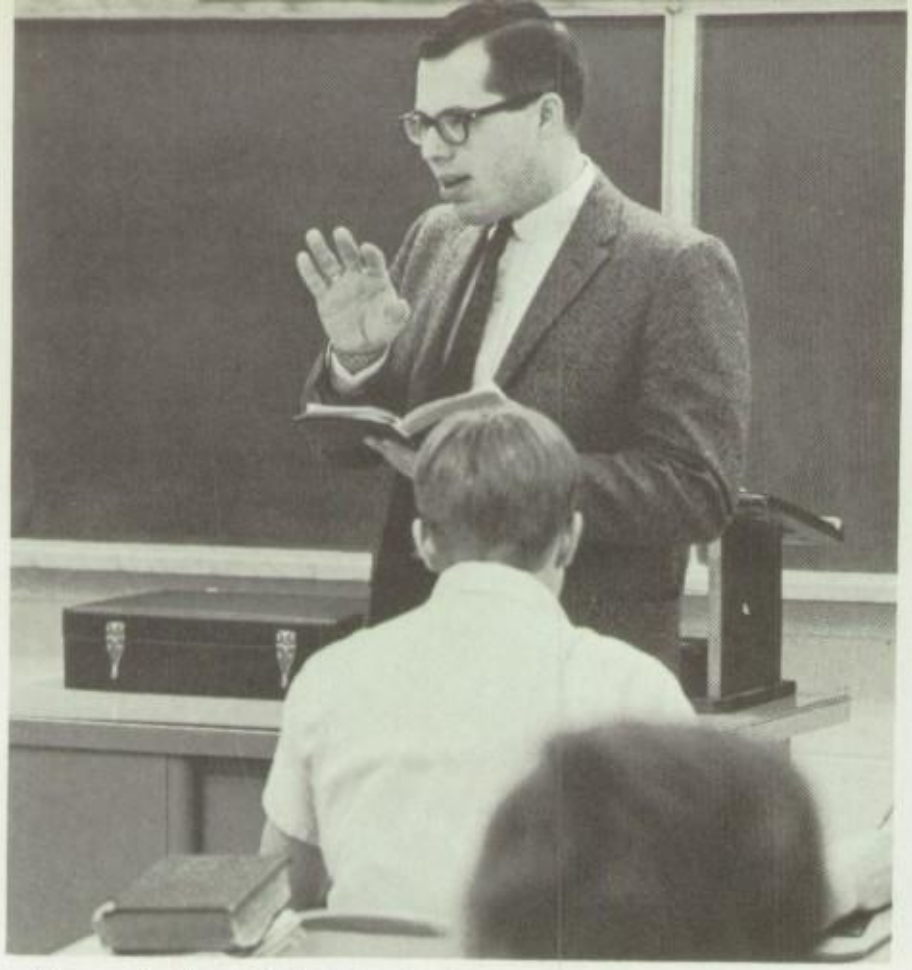
Principal

Mr. Morton Schroeder, besides his numerous responsibilities as principal of Saint Croix, teaches The Life of Christ to the juniors and the Summary of Christian Doctrine to the seniors.



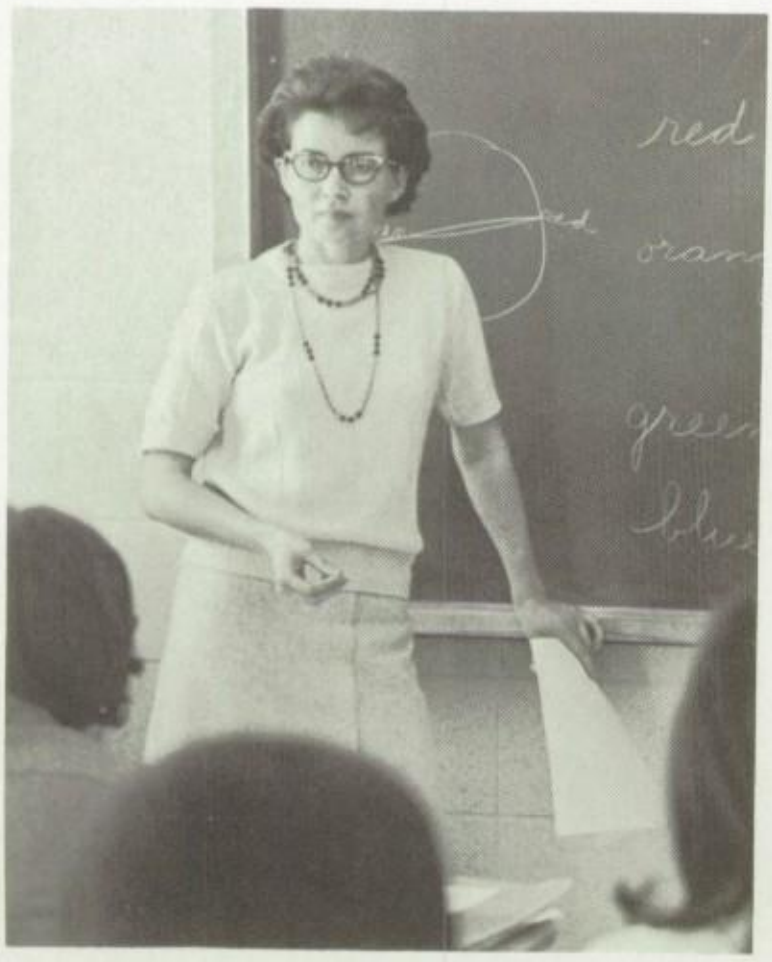
Mr. Wayne Zuleger is the central figure of our English department. He teaches English III and IV, sophomore speech class, and is in charge of the Courier and the library. Under his direction the number of books in our library has increased considerably.

Mr. William Staab is another busy man around Saint Croix. He teaches academic subjects--Latin I,II,III, and IV, and German I and II. He also coaches football, B-squad basketball, and track. Keeping records on attendance is another of his duties.



Mr. John Oldfield coaches the varsity basketball team and the baseball team and is in charge of boys' physical education. Besides his extracurricular activities he teaches Geography I and II and has taken on a new class of freshman religion.

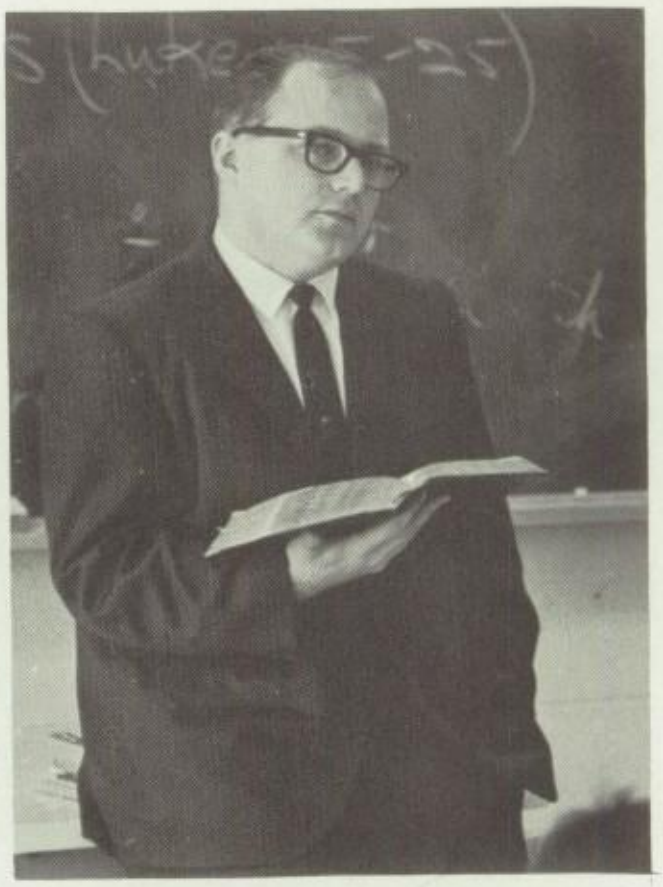
After a year's leave of absence, Miss Gloria Hybl returned to resume her duties at Saint Croix. Her daily schedule includes teaching general science, Algebra I, general math, and the girls' physical education classes. She also advises the Red Cross and both cheerleading squads.



Miss Rhoda Arndt is one of the new faces in school. She has taken on a rather heavy load. She teaches freshman English, citizenship, sophomore grammar, and art. Besides this she directs the junior and senior class plays and is the Shield adviser.

Mr. Daniel Schmeling instructs world history, American history, and senior problems. Besides being Saint Croix's registrar, he is the freshman class adviser. Mr. Schmeling joined the faculty this year after being called from his former home in Big Bend, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Morton Schroeder, a part-time instructor, teaches the business courses of typing, bookkeeping, and clerical office practice at Saint Croix. This marks her tenth year of teaching at Saint Croix.



Pastor Sturm, pastor of Salem Church of Woodbury and Mt. Zion Church of Burlington, came to us this year to teach Religion II.

Mrs. Staab is Mr. Schroeder's part-time secretary.

Mr. Schuster, Saint Croix's chief maintenance engineer, is cleaning off the newly topped parking lot with his favorite toy.

Senior Class Motto:

"O send out thy light and thy truth:
Let them lead me."

Senior Class Colors:

Green and Yellow

Senior Class Flower:

Yellow Rose

Senior Class Hymn:

Oh, that the Lord Would Guide My Ways

Oh, that the Lord would guide my ways
To keep His statutes still!
Oh, that my God would grant me grace
To know and do His will!

Order my footsteps by Thy Word
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.

Assist my soul, too apt to stray,
A stricter watch to keep;
And should I e'er forget Thy way,
Restore Thy wand'ring sheep.

Make me to walk in Thy commands
'Tis a delightful road
Nor let my head or heart or hands
Offend against my God.

Rick -

Hey - it's pretty bad this year without you to liven up the classes - but I guess them's the breaks. This year is gonna be our ('70s) greatest year cuz we're gonna make it. If anyone has any party or anything, will let ya know - and if ya come, bring some Washington-ites, cuz we only got 3 new boys this year - Well - I guess I've taken up too much space now - so take it easy on Duffy, and when you wand your glass case - come over and get it.

Just me!

Jackie - remember?

Rick, boy
If you'd told me
why didn't you come this year
it's really fun.
some fun. I was

Rick -
We're all going to miss you this year. Come back and see us lots.
Best of luck always.
Carol

Rick,
Maybe you're smart
not to come here this year. Sometimes,
I wish I wouldn't have come back, but it's only school. Have a good time.
Carl

RICK,
JUST, CAUSE YOUR A
WEE BIT BIGGER THAN ME DON'T THINK
YOUR GREAT. CAUSE IF YOU DO WHEN YOUR
A DECREPIT OLD MAN
I'LL COME UP AND
KICK YOU IN THE SHINS.
YOUR 'OL HIPPIE FRIEND
Clark "7/"

Hey Rick,
you big drunk.
Nobody can drink like you! Well I'm looking forward to a couple of winter parties - I'll buy the beer

Paul

Hey Rick,

Tell your mom to hurry up with my cake or I'll never kiss
Duffy again, even if you're not here you will be remembered as the best Zaleger hater in the world - we got him some good ones last year - get him again huh - even if we are Seniors
Remember your parties XMEN

Kisses
Craig "70"

Hey Rick, I'm gonna
Miss these -
Glad to meet Paul - Wish you were goin' here
this Year - Crazy Parties
Coming up - Shut-up-
Good Luck Kid -
Bids!
Rick

Rick,
I wish you could play football like me.
Ha, Ha!
Good luck
